

REPORTING HUMAN TRAFFICKING

If you are a survivor of trafficking you have rights and there are people and organisations that can help you.

Contact the Australian Federal Police

If you have experienced human trafficking you can report it to the Australian Federal Police by calling 131 237, or you can make a report online HERE

Find a Support Organisation

If you are a survivor of trafficking it is important to receive help. There are a number of organisations that can support you. To get help with reporting and find support services, you can get in contact with these organisations. They can help victims with legal issues, therapy, housing, and other types of support.

ANTI-SLAVERY AUSTRALIA

<https://antislavery.org.au>

Phone: +612 9514 9660

AUSTRALIAN RED CROSS

Australian Red Cross: Support for Trafficked People Program

<https://www.redcross.org.au/migration/support-for-trafficked-people/>

Phone: 1800 113 015

IMMIGRATION ADVICE AND RIGHTS CENTRE (IARC)

<https://iarc.org.au>

Info line: (02) 8234 0700

